

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY NEW ORLEANS
STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT
2020-2021

I. PREAMBLE

Loyola University New Orleans is an educational institution dedicated to fostering intellectual achievement, personal development, social responsibility, and is committed to the human dignity and worth of every person. Acceptance of admission to the University carries with it an obligation for the welfare of the community. As such, Loyola expects the highest standard of personal conduct from its students. The Division of Student Affairs is committed to providing a student-centered, values rich, co-curricular education. Dignity, excellence, wholeness, inclusiveness, and compassion are key values conducive to the pursuit of knowledge and to personal development.

Loyola University New Orleans fully supports and fosters a policy of non-discrimination on the basis of age, color, disability, gender, national origin, race, religion, sexual orientation, and veteran's status, or any other status or classification prohibited by federal, state, or local law.

It is the intention of this Code of Conduct to clarify standards of behavior essential to the University's educational mission and community life. The Code is applicable to all Loyola students. It is equally applicable to recognized student organizations and/or groups of students.

By accepting admission to Loyola University New Orleans, a student accepts Loyola's rules and acknowledges the right of the University to take action, up to and including suspension or dismissal.
